Next stop, Denver for UFO and the QUAD.....

Just a quick note on the speed disc here, Sung Hyun and Tag had an unbelievable round which would for sure been the best of the day except for one small problem. Sung threw the Target zone first and made the catch, he then had the second disc in the air and Tag hit the 20 yard catch and the third disc was out for the 30 yard catch and the crowd went wild in anticipation of them breaking the 15 second time limit to gain the best score of 10 points. Well, Sung realizing he had maxed the catches and all he needed was the disk back over the start line decided to get Tag to run as fast as possible so he turned and ran away from the field calling Tag to follow. No question they would have made well under 15 seconds cuz Tag is fast, except Tag has now come back past the disc which he had caught for the 20 yard catch, and could not resist stopping and exchanging the last disc caught for the one on the ground. Bad Dog, Bad Bad Bad Dog..... Wrong Disc. Now the crowd is yelling at Sung, "Come back Sung, get the right disc" So he did.... He was able to run all the way back to where the 30 yard disc , which Tag had now picked up once again and took it from Tag and threw it across the line to stop time..... In 34 seconds flat. When the laughter stopped, the contest went on.... No worries Sung, if I know you, you'll get um next time.....
